

The angels we can't always see but when we pray for he or she faith stands on all lands waves of faith glide in bring us closer to truth to faith's youth.

Angels of Faith

Soft wings hugging us showing us good dreams watching us when we pray on our voyages throughout the day

Angels

Fragrant winds of peace blow blue winds of soft sky red winds of sunset white winds of clouds life green winds of spring showing blowing so much strife with every grass blades step.

Angel Roses

Gentle whisper on minutes handle carry our timeless piece of gold mantle when we look for patience quietly she watches our side on the highest sun dial when climbing is nature's way of seeing rivers flow, stars trickle.

Angel of Love

She flies in beauty like the day a special bouquet masterpieces of white grace singing messages on skies of lace.
